

A twinkling eye.
A sweeping gaze.
Allow love to be conquered at Blessington Lakes,
The Avon.

The Avon

On behalf of the management and the wedding team here at The Avon, I would like to congratulate you both on your engagement. I am delighted that you are considering The Avon for your forthcoming wedding celebration and welcome the opportunity to introduce you to your fabulous Venue.

The Avon is a venue like no other for hosting a wedding. We offer one of the most serene and beautiful settings anywhere in the country. Only 30 minutes from Dublin city, sitting on the shores of the Blessington Lakes and with the Majestic Wicklow mountains in the background, you will not find a venue with such beauty anywhere.

We specialise in Weddings and Events here in The Avon and are bringing a fresh approach to making your day an experience that will live long in the memory of both you and your guests.

Allow us to make your dream wedding a reality.

Civil Ceremonies & Civil Partnerships

The Avon is fully licensed to host Civil Ceremonies & Civil Partnerships.

The Marriage Notification Process:

You must contact the Health Services Executive Civil Registration Office directly to make an appointment and to advise them of your intention to marry. Three months notification is required.

For further details, please visit www.civilregistrationservice.ie.

This applies to all marriages, whether solemnized by a Registrar or according to religious rites and ceremonies.

The Registrar will advise you if any official documentation is required and will discuss all details relating to your service with you directly. Please note that the hotel is not involved in this process.

Civil Ceremonies booked through the HSE can only take place from Monday to Friday. An alternative option, which is more flexible, is a non-denominational wedding ceremony, which can be conducted 7 days a week.
